

TV SERVICE OPTIONS	Digital Antenna	AT&T DirectTV Stream	COX	Hulu w Live TV	Sling TV	YouTube TV
Connection method	Need one physical antenna connected to each television	streaming over internet	using existing coax in bldg	streaming over internet	streaming over internet	streaming over internet
Monthly price + fees and taxes, subject to change	one-time purchase of approx, $15-$30 no monthly recurring cost	$69.99 for 65+ channels $89.99 for 90+ channels $104.99 for 130+ channels $149.99 for 140+ channels	$53.00 for 75+ channels $98.00 for 140+ channels $118.00 for 170+ channels $138.00 for 250+ channels	$69.99 for 70+ channels	$35 for 30-43 channels in the Orange or Blue plans. $50 for Orange AND Blue plan - 51 channels	$65 for 85+ channels
Free Trial	trial unit avail from WP	yes	no	yes	yes	yes
Local Channels: ABC, CBS, NBC, Fox, PBS, etc	yes, up to 69 channels	yes, including Indians and Cavs games	yes, including Indians and Cavs games	yes, but no PBS	Requires HD antenna	yes, incl PBS
Simultaneous streams per acct.	1 per antenna	20 in home, 3 outside of it	5 in home, 3 out of home using Cox Contour app	2 included. unlimited streams available for $15/mo	1-4 depending on which plan is subscribed to	3 streams, 6 accounts included unlimited streams and 4k avail for $20/mo ($10/mo 1st yr)
Cloud DVR	requires separate box such as Tivo at addtl one-time cost	yes. (20 hrs, unlimited for $10/mo.)	hardware DVR available for $13.50-$30.00/mo depending on plan	50 hours included per mo.	50 hours per month	unlimited
Pros	very good picture quality	easy install, reliable service	currently installed in many units - no change necessary		potentially less expensive than other options	extensive channel line up, good interface
Cons	requires 'line of sight' to TV transmission towers	potentially more expensive than others, depending on pkg. chosen	more expensive than other options	reputation for buffering quite a bit		slightly more expensive than other options